Rice Withdraws Retrial Petition

By Joe Schrader

A motion set for hearing this past Monday morning for a retrial for John Edgar Rice was withdrawn just before hearing in Circuit Court according to County Prosecutor Thomas Kent. Rice, who pled guilty to a second-degree murder charge in the slaying of John Messenheimer last year, petitioned for a new trial claiming he had been under the influence of drugs when his plea was made and that his wife and mother had been threatened prior to his plea as well.

Rice is serving a life sentence at the Marquette State Prison, where he was transported by sheriff's officials following today's motion retraction.

Prosecutor Kent said that if a retrial had been permitted, the county would have had to pay some $80,000 to $120,000 to conduct the proceedings.

Kent indicated that he filed a motion following the petition that Rice could not communicate with his mother and wife, both of whom had been subpoenaed into court for the hearing, along with a number of sheriff's dept. deputies in charge while Rice was lodged here in Crawford County.

The decision by Rice's attorney to withdraw his petition for retrial was made in Judge Porter's quarter's just prior to the hearing.

At Ceremonies Tuesday

Gaylord Bank Opens Local Facility

Beginning with a breakfast for approximately 100 people at the Chief Shoppenagon, and moving to a ribbon-cutting ceremony, the Grayling Office of Gaylord State Bank was officially opened Tuesday, June 12th.

Harold A. Elgas, bank president, spoke to the group of local businessmen and women, and welcomed them to the breakfast.

Gaylord State Bank was organized March 4, 1893, by Gaylord area pioneers, leaders of the community. In 1966, the Vanderbilt Office was opened for business, bringing greater banking convenience to that community eight miles to the north of Gaylord. In 1972, Pine Trees Branch was erected at the west limits of Gaylord, near the expressway and a shopping center. And, in 1978, our 90-day wonder, our Bagley Office was contracted in a permanent building after having been opened three or four years earlier in a modest temporary trailer. This is located at the intersection of McCoy and Old 27. See Ceremonies on Page 10

Cong. Davis Here For Town Meet

Really, How Much Child Abuse Is There in County?

By Dennis C. Rau
(Editor's Note: This is the eighth and final article in this series written on child abuse and neglect in Crawford County.)

Throughout the last few months, I have frequently been questioned about how much child abuse really exists in Crawford County. It seems that many people acknowledge that abuse and neglect does exist, but they are unclear as to the actual numbers that are appropriate for Crawford County. Therefore, we have compiled a set of statistics that will give the Crawford County residents an idea of the frequency of child abuse and neglect in the county. During 1977, we averaged approximately 4.7 referrals a month. This increased to 5.3 for 1978 and to 5.60 so far in 1979. What a referral indicates is that it is necessary for us to do an investigation of the home situation to assess if there is abuse or neglect actually occurring.

After these referrals had been assessed, it was found that in 1978 we had approximately 11.4 cases opened each month which were composed of both child abuse and child neglect cases in the county. So far in 1979, we have averaged 13.4 cases opened per month.

These figures indicate that there is a gradual increase in both the number of referrals and the number of cases that we are providing service to in the county. It should also be noted that during May of 1979 we have had the largest number of referrals. See Child Abuse on Page 2

Public Review Offered On Mason Tract Plan

Lansing—A first draft of a long-range management plan for the Mason Tract on the South Branch of the AuSable River will be offered for public review at an information meeting scheduled for 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, June 27, in the County Building at Roscommon, the Department of Natural Resources announces.

The tract was given to the State in 1955 by George W. Mason, former president of Nash-Kelvinator Corporation and an ardent trout fisherman and nature lover. Mr. Mason, now deceased, specified that the land and river frontage should be managed to preserve its natural at-

School Millage Defeated

By Joe Schrader
CCA Staff Writer

A proposal to increase the school millage for the operation of Crawford County Schools from 15.65 to 18.90 mills was turned down in Monday's election by Crawford County voters by a 143 vote margin, 841 to 698.

"Naturally the system is disappointed in the outcome of the vote," commented School Supt. Dr. William Diedrich Tuesday morning. I guess we consider one of the major contributing factors in the defeat the direct outcome of voter apathy." Only slightly over 1500 eligible voters turned out of 5000 cast ballots in the election.

Both incumbent Bernadine Desch and Pauline Petosky, both running unopposed, were elected to 4-year terms on the School Board.

Diedrich indicated that legal advice is now being sought to determine when another election on the millage question could be held. Another vote may be possible as early as August, he said.

Tabulated Precinct results were as follows:

	Yes	No
Precinct No. 1	581	580
Precinct No. 2	44	116
Precinct No. 3	24	117

Rounding out the total were absentee ballots indicating 49 "yes" as opposed to 28 "no" ballots.

The School administration is now faced with the task of deciding its next move. Even with just a renewal of the current school millage, with a continuation of present educational programming, the system would deficit-spend. The only millage the system now possesses is its county allocation of 7.10 mills since the only choice on the ballot this year was a continuation of the renewal plus the 3.25 mill increase.

One of the major considerations the administration and board must quickly take under advisement is the cost of unemployment compensation for school teachers "should their probability of continued employment here within the school system become unlikely."

Legion Election

American Legion Auxiliary Post 106 will hold their election of officers on Wednesday, June 13th at 8:00 p.m. at the Legion. All members please attend. Nancy Gingerich, Sec'y

Bits O'Talk

By Fay Bovee

Mrs. Lillian King spent from Friday to Tuesday of last week with her daughter and family, Bruce and Regina Rickley and twin daughters, Pattie and Paula, in Norwalk, Ohio. On June 3 they celebrated the twins' eighth birthday with a trip to Cedar Point.

Mrs. Helen Fisher returned to her home here on May 15 after spending the past six months in Orlando, Fla. Her daughter, Mrs. Robert LaMotte and children, Tami, Kathi, Cindi, and Troy arrived on May 29 from Tennessee and Dee's husband, Bob, flew in on June 1. They came to attend the graduation of their son, Kent LaMotte, from Grayling High School. Kent had remained in Grayling with his grandparents, Bob and Madonna LaMotte, to finish high school. On Thursday morning Helen hosted a Coffee Hour for Dee Ann's friends and on Friday evening after graduation she hosted an Open House for Kent and his friends and family.

Mitchell Linendoll, son of John and Shirley Linendoll, was guest of honor at a graduation Open House at the home of his parents in their new home on Peninsular Street. About 100 guests from Grayling and out-of-town were greeted by Mitch and his family and a sumptuous buffet supper was served from 5 to 9 o'clock on Saturday evening, June 9, 1979.

Head Start Graduation

By Viv Nichols

Graduation Ceremonies of a different kind were held last Thursday evening at the Michelson Memorial United Methodist Church. Little ones made the big step from Head Start to Kindergarten. Under the constant supervision of Miss Beth Teague, teacher, and two aides, Shirley Johnson and Marilyn Townley, these young people spent 5 days a week, from 9:00 a.m. till 12:45 p.m. growing, learning, sharing, (and not sharing) and getting literally a HEAD START. Throughout the year, they have taken trips to the Post Office, the Fire Station, Bear Museum, Traverse City Zoo, talked with policemen, and made a weekly trip to the library where Mrs. Rose Duley always had special movies and stories planned for them. At the ceremony, each child was presented with a diploma. The class leaves a flag for a legacy, representing the "Grayling Gremlins" in honor of Miss Teague's car. After the ceremony, the students and guests were served refreshments. Special mention should also be given to Mary Burns, area director, and the parents who met each month to discuss the progress and development of the Grayling Head Start Program.

On Dean's List

Hope College of Holland, Mi., recently announced that Steven Olsen of Grayling had been named to the Dean's List for the spring semester. A student needed to achieve a 3.5 grade point average or better on a 4.0 scale to be eligible for this distinction.

Olsen, is a Junior, at Hope, a four-year co-educational liberal arts college with an enrollment of 2,330.

Child Abuse

that being fourteen, and the largest number of cases opened, that being twenty-one. We believe that this is partially due to you as readers being interested in this situation and reporting to us family situations that are in need of assistance. We would like to thank you in behalf of these children and their parents for your help.

In the future, we see children's protective services becoming more and more involved in families in Crawford County. Our intention is to attempt to contact the parents prior to the abuse or neglect in order that we can provide some prevention measures for the potential abusive or neglectful families. We find it much more helpful to the family if we can help prevent the situation rather than coming in after the situation has already occurred or has been inexistence for some time. Therefore, we would continue to request that the residents of Crawford County stay aware of the children in their own neighborhood and contact us if they see a child or family in distress. Also in the area of prevention, one of the services coming to Crawford County in the near future is a renewed Bib Brothers-Big Sisters program. I would like to encourage all potential Big Brothers and Big Sisters to become involved in this program and offer support to these children who are in need of a big brother or big sister.

Since this is the final article in this series, I would like to thank Crawford County Avalanche for printing these articles; and we are very encouraged about the response that we have received from the public.

If you have any questions about any of these areas, please do not hesitate to contact us in whatever way is comfortable for you. Our phone number is 348-7691. If you need to contact a protective services worker after hours, the number is 275-8107, or call your local police agency and they will contact us.

Stephan Settlement Centennial

By Fay Bovee

Final plans have been made for the Stephan Settlement Centennial to be held Sunday, July 29, 1979, at Edgewater on the AuSable, with the day's program starting at 10:00 a.m. and lasting all day. Every effort is being made to contact all direct descendants of Peter and Helene Stephan who came to Crawford County in 1879. It is hoped to bring up to date at this time more of the family tree, to have family pictures on display, and "remember when" stories for the youngsters to hear. There will be walking tours of some of the family property, past and present, and a short memorial service at the family cemetery.

So, if you are a descendant, put the date down on your calendar, gather up all your family information and join the fun.

The family are looking for the seventh generation so if anyone knows of any, contact Pat Fowler, Barbara Sojka or Evelyn Gardiner. Also missing from the family are the whereabouts of the Leon Stephan family, some of whom live in the Jackson area. If you know of anyone, please contact them or let someone know.

From Our Corner ...

The die was cast Monday...with the results of the school election it's back to the drawing board for the school administration to come up with something the electors are willing to live with...it was evident they disliked the millage proposal that was asked for as they went to the polls and shot it down by a $41 to 698 margin.

Millage is needed to operate our school system as all the others in the state...we hear the words, tighten the belt...now days that is near impossible...

Really, what bothers us is the apathy of our citizens who do not even attempt to exercise their right to vote.

The way the world is today...we could possibly lose that right, and be like millions of people on this earth.

There are some days it just doesn't pay to be a newspaper man...and also days not to come to the aid of your fellow man...if you have any doubts...ask John Morrill of Grayling. Seems as how John who toils for the Bay City Times can attest to both sayings.

We ran into John Monday afternoon at the Hotel's watering hole and he was hobbling on crutches...seems as how three weeks ago he was at a steak house in Bay City with the Times managing editor, Dave Miller, when Dave got up to leave John noticed what looked like a muscle man leave at the same time. Sure enough, the man was after Dave for something about the Times. John interceded...Dave came out unscathed...John is on crutches with a triple fracture of the knee, plus a sore jaw from the sucker punch he received...

And there we always thought the press was protected...

We would like to take a little space in our corner this week to congratulate Mark Hanson for his accomplishment of graduating from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. Mark is but the third one from Crawford County in the history of West Point that has completed the course and commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant in the United States Army.

At their monthly meeting held last week, the Downtown Merchants Association discussed the possibility of holding an antique car show sometime in early fall. It was brought up how successful the Corvette show was, and the possible interest of downstate antique car owners coming here.

The idea is in the incubator stages...but with a little interest shown we believe it would be a great drawing card to stimulate business in the fall...three young business men are going to get the idea off the ground...the two Jansens, Dave and Curt, and John Alef, II, head man of the last two Corvette shows...they will need help...if you can help constructively, give either one a call.

Now that the secret is out...we can just say a couple words here...the community is planning an appreciation day for LeRoy Christian, another lucky retiree...on Wednesday, June 20th...tickets are limited so call now if you wish to attend the dinner of appreciation for "Mr. Musicman of Grayling".

An idle thought...we just have to wonder, if the way the weather changes in Michigan, is it the same outside of the Great Lakes...for those who were not around...Sunday morning was in the high 70's and by the time the sun went down it was just over 40...this little tid-bit is for the archives of Crawford County's newspaper...for those who may read this much later, Sunday was June 10th, 1979.

We can't leave our corner without saying good night to T.J., Stef and Amber wherever you are...have a nice weekend...remember old Dad Sunday...it's his day.

Commencement activities of Grayling High School start tonight with the traditional Class Day Program, and concluding tomorrow night with graduation. Thirty-five graduates will receive their sheepskins.

Grayling baseball team went to Cheboygan last Sunday to play ball, but the game was called off because of rain.

The Jess Schoonover family have moved to their summer home on Lake Margrethe.

A score or more large poplar trees cracked to the ground in Sunday's vicious wind storm. In the early afternoon, following an intense heat wave and soon the trees began to rustle, then branches waved and soon the trees were swirling and bending in their threat to upheave their roots that were straining in their anchorage. Scores failed to stand the test and crashed to the ground or to some building, according to where they stood. Two double trees, or practically four of about a foot in diameter each, were blown over at the home of Mrs. Julia LaVanture on Plum St. One pair just missed the edge of her home while the other two crashed down upon the roof.

Another tree fell upon the home of Mrs. Edna Whipple on Madsen Street on the South Side. This too did little damage. A large poplar in front of Supt. Burns' residence (former Marius Hanson home) fell across Ogema St. the roots tearing up slabs of cement sidewalk.

Trains from Manistee will whistle in Grayling before July 1.

Who can beat this? Holger Hanson and Charles Fehr caught two rainbow in the river, a short distance below, weighing three pounds and ten oz. apiece and measuring 19 inches respectively.

The completed plans for the hospital have been received and the work of building will soon begin, and be pushed to completion. Such an institution has long been needed and this central location is all that could be desired.

H. Birdsall of West Branch, contractor and builder, began the work of adding to the re-building the New Russell Hotel yesterday.

The Crown Chemical Co. will receive two more carloads of machinery this month, and will continue the installation of more until the plant reaches at least the one hundred cord mark.

Many of the local people took the train last Thursday to Gaylord to see Grayling's first baseball game of the season. Johnson pitched effective ball for Grayling throughout the entire game, having nearly his own way. The score was Grayling 8 and Gaylord 2.

The sawmill commenced cutting lumber Thursday and is now running full time.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Sex, An American God

Sex sin in America is destroying our nation by making it morally rotten to the core. Young children down to 8 years of age are declared to be featured in many of the pornographic films of today. There is a move on to lower the age of consent to 13 to give children sexual freedom and remove the restraint of statutory rape laws. There are already over 2 million boys and girls reported as child prostitutes in the United States under 13 years of age.

The God ordained family institution is being challenged and destroyed. Over half the babies born in our national capital last year were born illegitimate. We murdered over 1 million babies last year by abortion. After we as citizens of Michigan expressed our rejection of abortion, the Supreme Court overturned our vote and now if our governor has his way we will be forced to pay for part of the murder in Michigan with tax dollars. During the 70's, people living together without marriage is up 60%. V.D. increased by 3 million new cases last year. Almost 1,000 women per state will be raped this year. There will be 5 divorces for every 9 marriages across the U.S.

One of the last taboos in sex to be challenged is incest. C.B.S. plans to show a film this Fall on T.V. in which the main theme will be a relationship of incest between a mother and son.

Why is all of this happening at the very time churches are increasing their membership and religion is growing in America? Because religious people are playing church. In a recent polling of 10,000 ministers across America, nearly one-half of them don't believe the Bible as God's Word or believe in the virgin birth of Jesus Christ. One in three did not even believe in the bodily resurrection of Christ. Just this past week an old line protestant denomination publicly declared that they will start approving the ordination of homosexuals into the ministries of their churches. (adv.)

Senators Go Back on a Promise

By DAVID COHEN

The United States Senate recently demonstrated why Americans do not have confidence or trust in the Congress. Senators put their own personal economic desires first and broke a promise made two years ago to be full-time public servants who would limit their outside earned income.

In 1977, Senators voted themselves a $12,900 pay raise. To receive this pay increase and avoid a public outcry, they passed an Ethics Code which included a provision limiting to $8,625 the amount of outside income a Senator could earn annually. The limit, which went into effect Jan. 1, 1979, was advocated as a way to prevent conflicts of interest. The limit had been in effect barely two months when the Senate voted, with no committee consideration, no advance notice, and no roll call vote, to undo it.

Constituents, editorial writers and Common Cause, angry at this action in the dark, helped force the Senate to take a roll call vote to put each Senator "on the record." Sen. Strom Thurmond (R-S.C.), a leader in the fight to reinstate the limit, said: "We must appear right as well as be right," adding that it's necessary to show the public "we aren't here just to grab what we can for ourselves." By a 54-44 vote, the Senate postponed the effective date of the outside earned income limit until 1983. The hidden agenda is to repeal the limit permanently.

The original move to delete the limit was sponsored by Senators Ted Stevens (R-Alaska) and Daniel Moynihan (D-N.Y.) and had the behind-the-scenes approval of Majority Leader Robert Byrd (D-W.Va.). It was an about-face for Byrd who in 1977 fought hard for the limit. At that time, Byrd had said: "The present situation which allows Senators to earn up to David Cohen is President of Common Cause, a non-partisan citizens' lobby.

$25,000 a year in honoraria is intolerably high and contributes to doubts in the minds of the public as to why individual groups give so much money to a Senator for his speeches when he is being paid by his constituents to represent their best interests in the Senate." Back in 1977, Sen. Byrd was right.

Public financial disclosure statements show that Senators receiving honoraria often get it from those interests that have subsidy favors to ask of the Senators. In 1977 a Congressional Quarterly study showed that Senators received more than one million dollars in honoraria fees. No wonder the Senate cannot stop inflation. The Senators owe part of their income to the special interests demanding special subsidies and tax breaks from government.

Senators have been receiving the salary increase for over two years now. They lived with the restriction for only two months. At a time when all Americans are being asked to sacrifice by keeping their wage increases to 7 per cent, limiting gas for their cars, and heat for their homes, the action by the Senate was a real affront to citizens.

What a majority of the Senators did was to put their personal economic interests first and at the same time show how separated they are from the rest of the country. They're counting on Americans forgetting what they did. But if they weren't cut off from their constituents, they would know that the American people do not take kindly to being treated as fools. The last laugh will be on those Senators who thought they could get away with it.

Spring Construction? Call Miss Dig!

Grayling-Michigan Consolidated Gas Company today reminded area contractors, farmers and residents that they are required by state law to notify affected utility companies 48 hours before excavating, blasting or drilling with power equipment.

"The most convenient and efficient way to meet the notification requirement is to call the MISS DIG-Utility Communications System and inform them of your excavation plans," said Robert A. Stone, Manager of Michigan Consolidated's East area.

"MISS DIG is tremendously important as a safety system for contractors, farmers and others who are planning excavation work," Stone said. "Checking with MISS DIG could help prevent a serious accident involving damage to underground utility lines and could help save the excavator both time and money."

MISS DIG operators can be reached from anywhere in the state by calling toll free 1-800-482-7171.

Working with the caller, MISS DIG personnel will pinpoint the location of the excavation site. They will then check with appropriate utilities to determine if the site is located near utility lines. If that is the case, field personnel from the affected utility will mark the location of the facilities, enabling excavators to avoid damaging the lines.

Homeowners planning to dig or drill in their yards should also contact the MISS DIG center to ensure that their planned digging doesn't damage underground utility lines, interrupting service to themselves and their neighbors.

Mr. Stone said, "MISS DIG system helps prevent serious damage to underground utility facilities, and it also helps prevent unnecessary utility repair costs."

The MISS DIG underground facilities location service was first started by participating utilities in Oakland county in 1970. It proved so successful that it has been expanded to cover the entire state.

When any of the participating utility companies have underground lines near a reported work location they will dispatch trained personnel to identify those facilities. There is no charge to the caller for any of the MISS DIG service.

Utility field personnel will mark existing facilities using a standard color code-red for electric; yellow for gas, oil or dangerous material pipelines; orange for telephone, telegraph, cable TV, police and fire communications; blue for water mains; brown for sewer and green for storm drains.

Stone said, "The MISS DIG system does not handle calls for emergency repairs of utility facilities already damaged. Those should go directly to the affected utility." Likewise, MISS DIG operators do not handle routine utility service or account information calls. These should also be directed to the appropriate utility office.

Grayling BPW Club

On Thurs., June 7, the Grayling Business and Professional Women's Club held their first meeting of the new year, with newly elected president, Hertha Laupmanis, presiding. Committees for the ensuing year were introduced and plans for forthcoming activities were presented and discussed. A busy and exciting year is anticipated.

Dr. Wm. Diedrich, Supt. of Crawford-AuSable Schools, gave an interesting resume of the financial needs of our school system, and answered questions regarding revenues and expenditures.

Past President Roberta Wright reported on the annual State Convention which she attended in May. Over 800 persons attended the sessions held at the beautiful Hyatt-Regency Inn in Dearborn. While there Roberta was informed that she had been reappointed to serve as a committee chairman on a District level. She held this position last year; reappointment is an honor to her and to the local club.

A report was given on the Club's Yard Sale, which was very successful, and will be repeated in the future.

At the July meeting there will be a picnic held at the president's home. This is a lovely opportunity to invite guests and prospective members. Keep July 5th open for BPW.

Bentley Participants Back

"The Meeting Will Come To Order"

By Joe Schrader

Two Grayling High Juniors, Lisa Weiss and Jeff Schrader, returned June 3rd from a two-week Government training program called "Operation Bentley", conducted at Olivet College. High School government instructor, Howard Lehti arranged the participation for the two students following acceptance of their applications.

"I feel that Operation Bentley was beneficial on my part. I learned much that I never knew with regard to the governmental process. Not only did I experience college life but also had a chance to exchange political views with fellow students." That was how Lisa Weiss summed up her participation in the program which included 100 juniors representing 59 high schools from throughout the state.

The training session is sponsored and financed annually by the Alvin M. Bentley Foundation and those completing the course receive one college credit for participating.

The overall objective of the program is to acquaint students, in a practical way, the workings of government at every level.

Jeff had this to say: "I feel the experience was beneficial because all of us had to participate as government officials of some type—we had to figure things out, and, although it was only simulation, we in effect became real government."

The lengthy training course was held on the campus of Olivet College, south of Lansing, and afforded both local participants the opportunity to experience campus living in addition to gaining the invaluable training in government the session affords.

In addition to specific simulation responsibilities, all participants traveled to Lansing for a session with the Michigan State Legislature and attended evening sessions with guest speakers. The guest speakers for this year's Operation Bentley were Richard Allen, State Senator; Joanna Firestone, Bureau Chief of the UPI Capitol Bureau; Marcus Gray, Calhoun County Clerk; Hon. Richard Robinson, Circuit Court Judge; Jerry D. Roe, Former Executive Director of the Michigan Republican

ADD To Meet

The Crawford County Chapter No. 1681 of the American Association of Retired Persons will hold the June meeting Monday the 25th at Hartwick Pines in the form of a pot luck picnic, coffee will be furnished. Time is 1 p.m.

In case of rain the picnic will be held at the Senior Citizen Center. All members and guests are urged to attend, as an interesting afternoon is being planned.

Par For The Course

By Fay Bovee

Last week started the first week of full league play when the Chippers and Putters began play on Thursday evening. Regularly scheduled activities now include Senior Citizens on Monday morning, Monday Night Women's League in the late afternoon, Men's League with dinner on Tuesday evening, Wednesday Men's League on Wednesday afternoon and evening, Mixed League on Thursday, open golf with many couples and singles on Friday afternoon and evenings and Sunday was the first Sunday Couples Party.

There seems to have been considerable excitement around the course recently as 'father red-winged blackbird' seems to be protecting his nest and attacking those teeing off on number 9 women's tee. Several women have already been hit on the head (as I can verify!). On the positive side, the turtle has laid her eggs in one of the sand traps, so we hope no one comes up with turtle eggs instead of their ball, we've heard the porcupine liked the flag stick on number 7, but one of our golfers didn't like the porcupine, and some of the ladies have been busy planting flowers which have appeared in most unusual places. Pat McLaughlin, Cathy Parkinson, and Pauline Petrosky were busy Wednesday on that committee. Ruth Nielson has also put some geraniums on the deck and new outdoor table cloths have brightened up that area.

On Wednesday morning, Shirley Bendig and Corrine Smith again tied for low gross with a 46 in Flight A. Mabel Gothro took low net of 33 and Shirley dropped in 14 putts. In Flight B, JoAnn Olson won with a low gross of 54, Evelyn Kent took low net with a 32 and Evelyn Gardiner sunk 17 putts. Flight C's Dorothy Walker had a low gross of 55, low net of 32 and low putts of 16 which she shared with Jean Dopp and Cathy Parkinson who also had 16 each.

The Flight A women served the potluck luncheon for June 6, 1979. In the absence of president Sis Burr, Dorothy Phillips conducted a short business meeting.

In the Chippers and Putters League a good crowd came out to play the first night with most of them staying to barbeque, eat, and socialized. Inclement weather threatened but didn't materialize. Larry Gust presented a very short meeting and Bill

Denton held the raffle. The league is set up so everyone can record their points and it can be a most enjoyable evening with no one tied up for the evening with a lot of work.

The Monday Night League were rained out although some of the women stayed to play between the raindrops. (I told you, Whitey, no more praying for rain!)

A cheerful fire in the clubhouse fireplace greeted the somewhat chilled and slightly damp Sunday golfers when they returned from their rounds at the first Sunday golf party, June 11. Their spirits were not dampened and everyone reported a marvelous time. Golf for the day was best ball for the men and women with scoring based on birdies, pars and bogies. The winning foursome was made up of Mel and Ruth Nielson and Hal and Margie Walker who scored 69 points with the women getting 42 of them. Bruce and Corrine Smith and Dale and Helen Nicholas came in second with 68 points with the gals getting 42 of them. Dr. Allison, Shirley Bendig, Bud and Mary Sidwell took third with 64 points and the gals taking 44 points.

Everyone brought and grilled their own steaks and the committee consisting of Al and Pearl Tucker, Lee and Bunny Wilson and Atlee and Marge Hardy fixed a delicious buffet of potato salad, beans, peas and peanuts, relishes, rolls, and brownies. In the raffle, prizes were won by the Esmonds, Wilsons, Bendig, Janssens, Hardys, Schans, Normans, Beaufaits, Nielsons, Smiths, Allison, Bradys, Nicholas, Davisons, Laymans, Clingensmiths, Wiltzes, Weadbrocks, LaMottes and Tuckers.

A marvelous party, committee! The next Sunday party is scheduled for July 1. See you there!

SCHOOL'S OUT-SCHOOL'S OUT!!!—And the rest of that phrase is a matter of history. This was the scene at Grayling's Elementary School last Friday as the doors closed for the summer and the students waved in this photo, and in this case, the wrong direction! (Joe Schrader photo)

INTRODUCING Viceroy HOMES

- All framing lumber in every Viceroy home is kiln-dried to prevent shrinkage and is of the highest grade recognized by the Lumberman's Association.
- All exterior walls in every Viceroy home are powerfully framed with 2" x 6" (a 16" on centre). Engineering studies show the load bearing capacity of these walls to be 315% greater than conventional 2" x 4" framing.
- All cathedral roofs in every Viceroy home have steel-webbed roof trusses that provide an un-precedented load bearing capacity—over 100 lbs. per square foot! This is particularly important if you are building in a heavy snow area.
- Every pane of glass in every Stage II Viceroy home is triple-sealed with three panes of glass and two vacuum air spaces, providing a heat loss factor 40% less than regular thermal pane windows.
- All cedar exterior siding on every Viceroy home is pre-treated with a clear, water-repellent preservative sealer. This treatment prevents rot, attack by fungus or insects, and enables the wood to retain its beauty and durability 3 to 5 times longer than untreated wood.
- The incomparable Viceroy casement windows and glass sliding doors are built of solid, clear California redwood. Redwood is not only the handsomest of all woods, it also has the lowest volumetric shrinkage and one of the lowest thermal conductivities of any wood.

Not only will your Viceroy home be very beautiful, but it will also possess the finest structural specifications in America.

All members and guests invited.

We would like all of the new elected and appointed officers and chairman to be at the lodge at 6:00 p.m.

A lunch will be served after the installation. We will also have a band that will play from 9:30 till 7.

Everyone please come and have a good time with us.

Next regular meeting will be June 18th at 8 p.m. Hope to see everyone there. Cathy Canfield Pub. Chairman

The regular meeting of the Crawford County Republicans was held at the county building June 5, 1978, at 7:30 p.m. The meeting was called to order by Marilyn Stancil, county chairman. The treasurer's report was given by Clyde Borchers.

There was discussion held regarding letters to be sent to the graduating seniors of Grayling High School. It was decided that these congratulatory letters will be sent out sometime in June.

Communications were read from the Republican State Central Committee. The Lansing office has requested information about our local fund raising activities. This information will be submitted according to instructions. The Michigan Republican Party has appointed a state wide chairman to coordinate political activity on the senior citizen level. It was recommended that each county have a local coordinator to work with senior citizen groups. Marilyn Stancil will appoint such a person for Crawford County in the near future.

Initial plans were made for the annual summer reception for Governor Milliken. If possible, this year's reception will be held in conjunction with the Governor's review of the troops at Camp Grayling.

Some discussion was held regarding the structure of the Party, and the possibility of restructuring along township lines, as well as increased cooperation with our neighboring counties for fund raising events before the 1980 elections.

The other victims were riding in the car driven by Mahlon Nisly, 39. Those injured were Mahlon, his wife Susie, 45, his daughter Claudene, two sons, Quintine and Jacob and two foster children, Patty Febus and Tony Sharp.

The Crawford County Sheriff's Dept. was assisted by units from South Branch Twp. Ambulances from Gerrish Twp. and Crawford and Oscoda County transported victims to area hospitals. Fire units from South Branch also responded.

Sheriff's Dept. officials said recent disaster exercises were a major help in the efficient handling of the situation. The accident is still under investigation by Sheriff's Dept. deputies.

Sweet Adeline

It's double rehearsals two weeks before show time. The boys doing the lights at both Houghton Lake and Roscommon Schools have been so patient! We appreciate their skills and without them our show could not go on.

Dress rehearsals are scheduled for Monday night at Roscommon and Wednesday night at Houghton Lake. The members have been working very hard and putting long hours on all the many details. There are so many things to take care of and having the show put on twice at two different locations doesn't make for less work for sure.

The Harmony Hounds plan on being at their "howling" best so don't miss them on our big show. We urge you to get your baby sitters line up...or better yet, bring them along! Come to our show Friday June 15 at Roscommon High School Auditorium or on Saturday June 16 at Houghton Lake High School Auditorium. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Freezing Foods

Freezing is a simple, popular method of preserving foods at home. It retains the natural color, flavor, texture and food value of most fruits and vegetables, meats and baked goods. For successful freezing, select good, quality products. Freezing will not improve low grade food. Most fruit can be frozen satisfactorily if you select sound, ripe fruit that is slightly ripener than you would want it for canning — but is not yet soft or mushy.

All interested persons are invited to attend the Roscommon meeting and present their views. Those who cannot attend personally may submit written comments no later than July 6 to the DRN's Forest Management Division in Lansing (Box 30028, Zip Code 48909). Free copies of the draft plan will be available at the meeting, and can also be obtained from the DNR's Information Services Center in Lansing (Mason Building, Box 30028, Zip Code 48909) or from the Department's Regional Headquarters in Roscommon (Zip Code 48653).

Following receipt of public comments, the DNR will refine the plan and present it to the Natural Resources Commission for approval. When approved, the plan will guide future management for the Mason Tract's river and forest resources. The preliminary plan includes ideas for boundary adjustments, road relocations, and recreational uses such as fishing, canoeing, camping and picnicking.

Bits O'Talk

by Fay Bovee

Mr. and Mrs. George Hilton attended the graduation of their grandson, George Hilton, son of Tom Hilton, in at the Portland High School graduation, week before last.

Mrs. Marilyn Hanson and Margaret Austin, and Col. and Mrs. David Hanson, attended the graduation of Mark Hanson from West Point Military Academy on Wednesday of last week. The Hansons should be extremely proud of their son and his achievement as should the whole community of Grayling be proud of one of their native sons graduating. We believe Mark is the first Grayling boy to have graduated from there in over 50 years. Good luck, Mark!

Mr. and Mrs. William Eldridge of Rochester spent a few days of their vacation with their daughter and her family last week. They returned home with their grandson Jeffrey.

In honor of Millie Crosby of the Manistee River, Dick and Katie Hall entertained an early surprise buffet dinner birthday party at their lovely home on the AuSable River. A variety of dishes were provided by the 70 guests. Mitch Pieknik prepared his delicious chicken and Stu Holland a Bar-B-Que pork roast. Cocktails were served throughout the afternoon and evening along with lovely recorded music. Games of badminton, horseshoes and cards were included in the entertainment. A few brave younger ones enjoyed wading in the river. Millie received many lovely gifts including a one of a kind 8 ft. picnic table sanded and painted by Katie Hall and lettered by Harold Lee as a birthday card with all the names of the guests. Out of towners were from Detroit, Mt. Pleasant, Toledo and Bear Lake.

The Arthur Carson family all visited Burns Meech at Little Traverse Hospital while they were up there for Cindi Shepler's graduation.

Susan Knutilla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Knutilla of Tampa, Fla. and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Souders of Grayling, graduated on Sunday, June 10, 1979, from Williamston High School. She will attend the U of Florida at Gainesville, this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Souders were in attendance at the graduation.

south of the City of Gaylord, Elgas said.

Elgas went on to say that in the fall of 1977, an application was placed with the State Banking Department and with the Federal Reserve system to erect a branch at our new site on the I-75 business loop north of Grayling. This application was contested and it took until spring of 1979 to receive a final approval. Ground was broken on May 10, and the building was completed June 9, exactly 30 days, Elgas said. Mr. Elgas commented as to the vigor of the staff in planning and the wonderful acceptance, attitude and cooperation by Grayling area officials, Consumers Power Company, other utilities and the State Highway Dept.

Elgas stated the reason for our moving into the Grayling area as expansion is a competitive spirit. Our goals are the same as most every bank-service to the community and profits for the stockholders, acquired only by superior, convenient and modern service, he said. So far we have found greater competition good for all concerned—we work harder to serve people; thus the customer benefits, and with aggressive and progressive financial institutions, communities grow and prosper, jobs are created and the quality of life in Northern Michigan improves and expands, he said.

We are excited about the prospects of Grayling's growth. We have made our investment with confidence in this community. There is substantial opportunity and an excellent attitude for future progress in our middle-of-the-state locations, Elgas said.

We intend to promote with vigor the Grayling interests through the Chamber of Commerce, for controlled growth and investment opportunity. We want to be part of this progress so that our bank too, with other competitors, can prosper and grow.

Highlights of the breakfast was Gordon Barnes, economist from Detroit, who gave an economic update, and the introduction of the Grayling staff who include Ken Arndt, as temporary manager; Joyce Bowers, temporary new accounts clerk, and four tellers Sally Noeske, Teresa Joseph, Judith Eberts and Carol Cavitch all local women; plus Nancy Weber, Teller Trainer.

Following the short program, Elgas invited everyone to join the group at the Grayling Office for the ribbon-cutting ceremony, and a tour of the new facility.

The Judge Former Justice Felix Frankfurter declined to officiate at a friend's wedding ceremony on the grounds that he "did not have the authority to perform the ceremony." "What?" wondered his friend, "a Supreme Court Justice doesn't have the authority to marry people? How come?" "I guess," said the Justice, "it is because marriage is not considered a federal offense."

Commencement Week Ends

By Jeanne Lange
CCA Staff Writer

For Grayling High School seniors, last week was the end of their high school instruction. For many, it was the beginning of a different kind of life than they had known, for 18 years.

Wednesday night started out the activities leading up to graduation. Baccalaureate was held in the auditorium, at Grayling High School. Rev. Otis Smith, from the Grayling Free Methodist Church, gave the invocation and benediction. The main address was given by, Rev. George Spencer, from the Michelson Memorial Methodist Church. He read a passage from Romans and then gave a short talk about how, in your life you have to make sacrifices for others.

Thursday was the traditional class night. The class history was read and the class of 1979 reflected on what had happened during their high school years. They remembered the sad times and the happy times. The class held a mock election and the results were given. Such East Lansing—Although Columbus' discovery of the New World in 1492 should have corrected myths of the earth's flatness, people still see the world from a two-dimensional perspective.

Jolene Barber of Frederic a sculpture student of Prof. Jim Lawton at Michigan State University, is training her eye to see "roundness."

"Traditionally, art education has slighted the treatment of volume," said Lawton who instructs classes in plaster and metal sculpture at the Kresge Art Annex on the MSU campus.

"Sculpting materials are often more difficult to work with than pen-on-paper or brush-on-canvas so we've all grown accustomed to seeing two-sided."

Lawton wants his students to develop an awareness of the fullness of the real world. He also teaches advanced techniques in molding and casting which he hopes will inspire a love for sculpting.

Students in Lawton's classes use clay, latex, plaster, wax, bronze and greenware for sculpture assignments. Many have additional sketchbook requirements.

Barber, a 1977 graduate of Crawford AuSable High School, started at MSU as an engineering major.

She is now a studio art major on a program emphasizing sculpture. The switch, she said, has been a good one.

"I've always enjoyed working with clay and ceramics," Barber said, "and now I'm finding there's even more to sculpting than first meets the eye."

After graduation from MSU, Barber would like to be a self-employed artist.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson S. Cox, Jr., 7237 Myrtle St.

Lenawee Co. 4-H Assistant

The Lenawee Co. Cooperative Extension Service recently announced the selection of Elva J. Lovell as a new 4-H Youth Program Assistant.

Mrs. Lovell, her husband Ron, and their three children—Amanda, Robert, and Jonathan—reside in Adrian and have been residents of the county for approximately one year.

Both she and her husband were born and raised in Grayling where Mrs. Lovell was previously employed as Branch Manager for Sarah Coventry Inc.

She is a 1967 graduate of Grayling High School and brings to her position extensive experience in church youth work and programming.

"Mrs. Lovell's group work experience and obvious skills in working with people will make her a real asset to our Lenawee 4-H Youth Program," Dyle Henning, County Extension 4-H Youth Agent, said.

Some of her main responsibilities will be horse and pony project activities with the 4-H Horse & Pony Board, rabbit and other small animal projects with the 4-H Small Animal Association and development of new 4-H Clubs in both urban and rural areas for youth ages 9-19 and their families.

Since moving to the area, Mrs. Lovell and her family have become actively involved as members of Emmanuel Baptist Church, Adrian, and have enjoyed making new friendships.

She is the daughter of Jewell Ward of 707 Park St. Grayling.

Social Services Holds Meeting

The Crawford County Social Services Board held its regular monthly meeting, at the Social Services office on May 22, 1979.

Discussion was held relative to cost cutting measures. A unanimous decision was reached to discontinue publishing the minutes of the monthly meetings, in the local newspaper, as a cost-saving measure.

All board meetings are open to the public. Future meeting dates are prominently displayed at the Department of Social Services.

The minutes of all meetings are available for reading, to any interested person, upon request, at the local office.

Lions Thank Community

The Grayling Lions Club would like to thank the people of our community for their generous support of our recent White Cane Sale.

We would like to especially thank the Grayling Restaurant for their thoughtful, kindness in furnishing hot coffee to the Lions as they stood at the intersections shivering from the cold, damp weather. Thanks also to the Homestead House, they have always let us use their parking lot for our projects.

The money received from the sale of White Cane goes back to the community in many different ways. Although our main function is providing eye glasses and aids for the blind, we also donate to many other causes that the board of directors feel are worthy, if the funds are available.

The Grayling Lions Club sponsors a sub-station for the Michigan Eye Bank. You may donate your eyes for transplants or eye research. Dr. Paul Dosch has been very faithful, to always be there to enucleate the eyes for us. We have recently sent several pair of eyes to Ann Arbor for transplant.

Grayling Lions Club is also interested in increasing their membership. If you are a man eighteen years or older and willing to work toward helping the people of our community, you are asked to contact one of our Lion members or call Don Hale at 348-5524. We could use some senior citizens in our club to help us with our projects that require help during the day when the majority of us are at work.

Attend the Church of Your Choice

Yours Is The Hand

that lights your child's face

We've heard so much about the effects of insecurity on the life of a child! It seems urgent to find a picture of security... that elusive ideal that parents want to provide but can never be sure they have.

Notice the importance of the light in our picture. It doesn't really come from that fatherly hand. Someone else has provided the light which links father and son. The father merely stood in that light... and held his son's hand!

Sunday — Father's Day — in hundreds of thousands of churches, earnest fathers will stand in the Light. With their sons they'll worship God... experience again the spiritual understanding of life. See the brightness of that true security reflected in youthful eyes.

Picking Apples
When picking apples from the grocery bin, keep in mind that the skins should be smooth and unbruised — bruises turn easily to decay. As long as rust dots are light, they don't affect flavor or quality. Always keep firm, crisp apples at room temperature.

Sweet Adeline Production June 15-16

Lights! Music! Final preparations and polish for the Sweet Adeline extravaganza LET US ENTERTAIN YOU, appearing Friday evening, June 15 at the Roscommon High School Auditorium and Saturday evening, June 16 at the Houghton Lake High School Auditorium. Curtain time will be 8:00 p.m.

Carrying out the vaudeville theme will be such "oldies but goodies" as Alexander's Ragtime Band, Birth of the Blues, Straw Hat and a Cane, plus more. Dance routines and lighting will enhance this unique style of women's barbershop singing.

Mid-Mitten's own quartet "The Entertainers" featuring Mary Ann Eckerly, bass and June Haines, baritone from Roscommon plus Carol Bunge, lead and Leslie Gandolfi, tenor from Houghton Lake will follow the theme with an old favorite.

Reyes Syndrome Research

Crawford AuSable School District Children and Parents' Dear Children and Parents: We wish to thank you for your cooperation in the study of Reyes' syndrome in the Crawford County area. The investigation is not yet complete, but at this time we would like to let you know about the early results and future directions for the study.

There were a total of 1,134 participants in the study, of whom 51 percent were girls and 49 percent boys.

SCHOOL	March, 1979	April, 1979
High School	297	267
Intermediate School	254	213
Grayling Elementary School	448	365
Frederic Elementary School	122	54
Grayling Christian School	11	11
Seventh-Day Adventist	2	2

This return rate of 80.4 percent is very high for this type of a study. We were all heartened by this tremendous response. It shows the concern that you all have for trying to learn about this disease.

All of the first round blood samples have been studied for two substances which have been associated with Reyes' syndrome. A small number of these blood samples had elevated levels of one or both of these substances. The second round blood samples of those children who had higher than expected levels in their first round sample have also been tested. It is difficult at this time to draw any conclusions regarding these elevated levels because some of the elevations are not associated with any disease but are rather examples of the normal variation of these substances found in any large group of people. Nevertheless, the study physicians will contact the parents and the physicians of those children who had unexpected levels.

The testing for abnormalities is only part of the study. A second part of the study is to determine the extent of influenza infection during the outbreak in the study participants. This is done by testing for evidence of exposure to the influenza virus in the bloods of children who had two samples drawn. These tests will take a considerable amount of time and will not be completed until late summer. Information from both parts of the study, including the information provided by you at the clinics, will then be evaluated to draw conclusions regarding Reyes' syndrome, certain chemical changes and influenza infection. A summary of these findings will then be provided. You should know, however, that just the information from the blood tests run thus far has made this study worthwhile and has contributed new knowledge about the level of the two substances in a school age population.

Business Community Learns About Worker's Comp...

By Joe Schrader
CCA Staff Writer

Community business leaders met last Tuesday at noon at a luncheon sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce Retail Merchants Division at the Holiday Inn. The main topic on the agenda was the subject of Women's Compensation and its economic impact on business & industry.

"The entire system is a mess." That was basically the theme of Jim Hallan's address to the group in attendance at Grayling's Holiday Inn. He was guest speaker and represents the State Chamber of Commerce on governmental affairs issues. Hallan is an attorney and originally from Holland, Michigan.

The text of Hallan's presentation outlined the history of the state's Workmen's Comp law and the drastic need for reform. Noting that the law dates back to 1912, Hallan reviewed cost figures showing that Michigan's rates were significantly higher than those in neighboring states, "caused primarily by claimant abuse."

He went on to review three recent compensation cases that reflect abuse within the system. The three are only typical cases that has prompted Chamber officials to seek reform in the law which in many cases provide a claimant tax-free benefits that exceed his income.

"We are cautiously optimistic," Hallan said, "about the efforts of a recently-formed task force will contribute to a major reform movement." A State Chamber of Commerce coalition was formed in March and Hallan noted that Governor Milliken said that Worker's Compensation was one of his major priorities for change in 1979.

Just last Friday, a Task Force aimed at Comp reform was formed and consists of 12 members. The group has established a deadline of October 1st for establishing a firm reform proposal.

Business & industry members will sit in an advisory basis only. "It appears, though, that businessmen concerned about the system are beginning to unite on the reform issue," Hallan concluded.

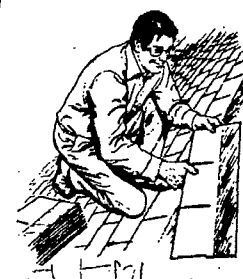

His address was accompanied by a slide presentation on the subject at the session, attended by a large group of local business people.

Wonder Why? Tests show that men laugh longer, more loudly and more often than women.

Students Create Electronic Music Compositions at Alma College

Alma—Eerie sounds, rhythmic vibrations and synthesizers are some of the things studied by James Clark of Frederic to create electronic music compositions in Alma College's four-week Electronic Music course during Spring Term.

During Spring Term, students take only one course. This allows them to concentrate on one subject and to develop that subject more extensively than is possible during the regular terms.

The main purpose of the course, taught by Dr. Paul Russell, is to create an electronic composition on the synthesizer. To be able to take the course, the nine students involved in the class had to have some music listening training.

According to Dr. Russell, "The synthesizer is classified as a musical instrument that extracts, by voltage and controlled voltage, the synthesis of natural sounds and musical instruments to create music sometimes never heard before by man. The synthesizer reaches right beyond the threshold of sound. When composing electronic music, the notes are put directly on tape—one at a time." Dr. Russell notes that electronic instruments were in existence before 1900.

In the class, the students became familiar with the terminology, & learned the basic concepts of playing the synthesizer and how to handle the equipment that is used with it. They also learned how to prepare a tape and splice it together to record the electronic music.

A 1976 graduate of Grayling High School, Jim is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Frederick Clark of Rt. 1 Box 217, Frederic. He is a junior majoring in English at Alma College.

Secretary of State Richard H. Austin explains "Staggered" year round vehicle registration by birthday to Governor William G. Milliken. After March 1980, most license plates will expire on the vehicle owner's birthday. The Governor's birthday is in March so Austin shows the Governor how his 1980 plates will look.
